- 25X1X 1. On 2 July 1950 Soviet General Zhukov*, accompanied by thirty staff officers, arrived in Peiping to consult with Chinese leaders on the subject of the Korean situation. Zhukov returned to the USSR about 21 July, after further talks in Mukden.
2. The Foreign Affairs Bureau in Peiping believes that MAO Tse-tung wants to avoid a war, but that the American attitude toward Taiwan and Korea has forced him to agree to send volunteers to Korea and Indochina in return for the increased military assistance now required for the invasion of Taiwan.
